COLLINS DEFEATS SAMSON

First in Fourteen Minutes-Second in Bill Collins, the Central Village one-two-wrestler, added new honors to his reputation in a New Year's eve match at Plainfield, when he defeated Oscar Samson in straight falls. There was a good sized crowd on hand, who were enthusiastic over the success of the local man.

Collins had Samson pushed all the way, although the Pristiled man had something on him in weight, but Bill flopped him the first time in 14 minutes on a half hammerlock and Nelson. When Kid Wilson, the referee, gave the signal to get together again Collins again took the initiative and tossed Samson with a double arm roll, gaining the fall in five seconds, and throwing Samson so hard that he was knocked out for about 16 minutes. When Samson came to, he wanted to continue the match, and started in we used to start training that he had already been counted out.
